Court of Protection

COP1 Notes

Guidance notes on completing form COP1 Application Form

Please read the following notes before completing form COP1

If you wish to start proceedings in the Court of Protection, you must complete form COP1 and the relevant annex and file it with the court. Refer to Section 1 of the form and the table at the end of these notes to decide what forms you need to complete.

If your application relates to: deprivation of liberty under sections 4A(3) or 21A of the Mental Capacity Act 2005; an objection to the registration of a lasting power of attorney; or the registration of an enduring power of attorney, you need to complete a different application form. Refer to the website www.gov.uk/court-of-protection for more information.

If your application is made in the course of existing proceedings, i.e. you have already made an application; you need to complete a different form: COP9 Application notice for applications within proceedings.

If you are appealing a Court of Protection decision, you need to complete form COP35 Appellant's notice.

You must pay a fee when you make an application. Refer to the leaflet COP44 Court of Protection – Fees for details.

You may need to pay for any legal costs or expenses you incur in connection with your application. In some situations you may be allowed to be reimbursed from the funds of the person to whom the application relates. If the court considers that you have acted unreasonably, it can order you to pay the costs of other parties.

Completing form COP1

Type of application (Section 1)

Please indicate what type of application you intend to make by ticking the relevant box. If you need to make more than one application, for example to appoint a deputy, and appoint or discharge a trustee; you must submit separate applications.

The court cannot accept your application unless you send all the relevant forms with your application. Refer to the table at the end of these notes to decide what other forms you need to complete.

Your application (Section 4)

You need to state what order or declaration you are asking the court to make. In each case the court needs to decide whether the person to whom the application relates is capable of making a decision in relation to the matter to which your application relates.

Please provide specific details about what you want the court to do. For example, you may be asking the court to appoint a deputy, or you may want the court to order that the person to whom the application relates moves to a particular residence, or that a particular investment is made. In each of the examples you would need to explain why the appointment of a deputy is required, or provide the particular details of the residence or investment.

You should also explain to the court why the order or declaration you are seeking will benefit the person to whom the application relates. If you are asking the court to appoint a deputy, please explain why you think this is necessary and why the court should not make the decision on behalf of the person to whom the application relates.

Respondents (Section 5.1)

You must provide the details of any person who you reasonably believe has an interest which means they ought to be heard by the court in relation to the application. Respondents have the opportunity to be joined as parties to the proceedings if they wish to participate in the hearing.

Once the court has issued your application form, you must serve respondents with copies of all documents relating to your application, in order to allow them the opportunity to support or oppose your application.

Other people to be notified (section 5.2)

You must provide the details of other people who are likely to have an interest in being notified of your application. You must notify these people when the court has issued your application form. They have the opportunity to apply to the court to be joined as parties to the proceedings if they wish to participate.

You should seek to identify at least three people to be notified of your application. If you have not already named the following close family members as respondents, they should be notified in descending order as appropriate to the circumstances of the person to whom the application relates:

- a) spouse or civil partner
- b) person who is not a spouse or a civil partner but who has been living with the person to whom the application relates as if they were
- c) parent or guardian
- d) child
- e) brother or sister
- f) grandparent or grandchild
- g) aunt or uncle
- h) niece or nephew
- i) step-parent
- j) half-brother or half-sister

Where you think that a person listed in one of the categories ought to be notified, and there are other people in that category (e.g. the person has four siblings) you should provide the details of all of the people falling within that category – unless there is good reason not to do so

You do not need to provide the details for a close family member who has little or no involvement with the person to whom the application relates, or if there is another good reason why they should not be notified.

In some cases, the person to whom the application relates may be closer to people who are not relatives and if so, it will be appropriate to provide their details instead of close family members.

For further guidance on who is to be notified of an application, see practice direction 9B.

Permission (Section 6)

In some cases you will need the court's permission to make an application. You must complete section 6 of this form if you need the court's permission.

- a) You do not need the court's permission if the application:
 - is made by a person who lacks or is alleged to lack capacity (or, if the person is under 18 years, by anyone with parental responsibility);
 - is made by the Official Solicitor, the Public Guardian, or a court appointed deputy;

- concerns the property and affairs of the person to whom the application relates;
- concerns a lasting power of attorney or an enduring power of attorney;
- relates to an application concerning deprivation of liberty under sections 4A(3) or 21A of the Mental Capacity Act 2005; or
- is about an existing court order and is made by a person named in that order.

b) You do need the court's permission for all other applications.

Where part of the application concerns a matter that requires permission, and part of it does not, you need the court's permission only for that part of it which requires permission.

Attending court hearings (Section 7)

If you need special assistance or special facilities for a disability or impairment, please set out your requirements in full. It is important that you make the court aware of your needs to avoid causing any delays.

The court staff will need to know, for example, whether you want documents to be supplied in an alternative format, such as Braille or large print. They will also need to know about any specific requirements should there be a hearing, such as wheelchair access, a hearing loop or a sign language interpreter.

If the person to whom the application relates is a child, you must provide the details of the any person with parental responsibility for the child, so they can be served with your application. If there is no person with parental responsibility, you should name an adult who lives with or cares for the child.

What you need to do next

Other documents to be filed

You may need to file other documents with your application. The annex to the application form, or practice direction may set out additional information or material required, but you should also file the following documents, if applicable:

- the order appointing a deputy, where the application relates to or is made by a deputy;
- a copy of any lasting or enduring power of attorney;
- the order appointing a litigation friend, where the application is made by, or where the application relates to the appointment of a litigation friend;
- the order of the Court of Protection, where the application relates to the order;
- the order of another court, where the application relates to the order;
- any written evidence on which you intend to rely (in accordance with the relevant practice direction) using the COP24 witness statement form; and
- any other documents you refer to in the application form.

The court requires 2 copies of this form, COP1 Application form and one copy of every other form or document. You should keep copies of each form and document for your own records.

When you have completed all the forms you should take, or send them to the Court of Protection, along with any fee. For details on where to send your application check the website: www.gov.uk/court-of-protection.

What happens next

If you need permission to apply

If your application relates to personal welfare and you need permission to apply, the court will consider your application for permission as soon as practicable after your application form has been issued, and will notify you whether permission is granted, refused, or whether a date has been fixed to consider permission separately.

If permission is granted and the court has received the correct completed forms, you will need to serve a copy on each respondent and notify the person to whom the application relates and the other people you have named in section 5 of this form.

If you do not need permission to apply

If the court has received the correct completed forms, the court will issue your application form and legal proceedings will start. The court will notify you when your application form has been issued and will return a sealed copy of the application form. You will need to serve a copy on each respondent and notify the person to whom the application relates and the other people you have named in section 5 of this form
